Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend, seing his sufferings, advised us to use your Restorative; we did so with little hope of success, but, to our surprise, and that of all our friends, a very few applications removed the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant cop of hair soon started out, and we can now say that our boy has as healthy a coalp, and as luxuriant a crop of hair, as any other child. Indianapolis Correspondence. SENATE CHAMBER 23d Nov., 1858.

MR. THOS. TIGAR : Dear Sir .- On Friday evening last a Demo cratic caucus of the Senators met at the chamber to nominate officers to be voted for on the next morning. It was soon discovered that three Senators, who style themselves Anti-Lecompton Democrats, would have the balance of power, and that an understanding existed between them and the opposition, who should be the officers of the Senate at the present session. Every concession was offered to them that was reasonable, but to no effect. We nominated their choice for principal Secretary, and the Republication of the surface of the server of cans did the same. The conidea that the Senate of the United States will be at all disturbed by the action of the Indiana

Democratic Meeting at the Capitol. The meeting at the Hall of the House of Rcpresentatives last night, was largely attended, and was organized by calling Hon M T Carnahan t the Chair. A call was made for Hon James Hughes, who took the stand and said that in order that he might not be misunderstood, he had reduced his remarks to writing. He defended the Dred Scott decision and the English bill, and said he had gone down in the fight of 1858 with his flag flying. His speech was logical, eloquent and powerful.

Governor Willard was then called out. He passed a high and glowing eulogy upon Democratic policy. He endorsed the Administration, but found no feult with that Democrat who hon. estly differed with him, so he voted and fought for the regular ticket. He proposed to read no man out of the party, but if men would continue to wage war upon the Democratic Administration and Democratic principles he considered them no longer Democrats but as belonging to the Opposition. His speech was eloquent, and was received with applause by the audience.

Hon J E McDonald was the next speaker, and he spoke openly and freely. He rejoiced at the success of Judge Douglas in Illinois, but would not join in the 'jollification' of that event now under sentence.

> Democracy and Education .- It is a singular and significant fact that in a number of counties in Southern Illinois the number of male adults who cannot read nor write just about equa's the number of those who voted against he Democratic ticket. For instance in Alexander county, the combined vote against Fondey the Democratic candidate, was 233, while the number of male adults in the county unabled to read was 219. In Pope the Republican candida'e received 18 votes, and the number of perons in that county unabled to read is 22. Pu laski county gave 56 Republican votes, and has only 67 adults unable to read, and gave 226 Republican votes. Perry had 474 adults unable o read, and gave 463 Republican votes, leaving but 11 of them to vote the Democratic ticket. From the coincidence it is not difficult to see that those who cannot read or write voted to a man the Republican ticket. The Republicans who call attention to the number of ignorant persons in these counties have been sadly discomfitted when it is rendered certain that they comprice the bulk of their vote. Democracy and popular education go hand in hand to gether. An illiterate, ignorant and badly informed man generally yotes for the opposition. -Cin. Enq.

A bill for the reappraisement of real estate has been introduced. Resolutions against taking back the Wabash & Erie Canal have been passed by unanimous votes in both Houses. So we presume this bugbear is set at rest. Nothing clse of much interest has as yet been done by the Legislature.

The Governor's Mesage to the special session of the Legislature will be found in another column. It is of commendable brevity, merely explaining the reasons for calling the Legislature together, and recommending immediate action upon the subject of the state finances, so as to eave the credit of the state by providing revenue and influences among her sister S ates, that any to meet its indebtedness, and sustain its benevolent institutions He also recommends a reappraisement of real estate and the passage of a law for the erection of another penitentiary, the present one being totally inadequate for the proper accompodation of the number of convicts there was accessity for legislation, and expressed a

If the Legislature would confine themselves to the business for which the extra session was called, and leave other matters for the regular ession, they might accomplish all that is necessary in a few days, and adjourn. Democratic Meeting at the Capitol. The meeting at the Hall of the flouse of Re presentatives last night, was largely attended. and was organized by calling Hon M T Carnahan t the Chair. A call was made for Hon James Hughes, who took the stand and said stood, he had reduced his remarks to writing. He defended the Dred Scott decision and the English bill, and said he had gone down in the fight of 1858 with his flig flying. His speech was logical, eloquent and powerful. Governor Willard was then called out. He passed a high and glowing eulogy upon Democratic policy. He endorsed the Administration. estly differed with him, so he voted and fought man out of the party, but if men would continue to wage war upon the Democratic Administration and Democratic principles he considered them no longer Democrats but as belonging to the Opposition. His speech was elequent, and was received with applause by the audience.

Hon J E McDonald was the next speaker, and he spoke openly and freely. He rejoiced a the success of Judge Douglas in Illinois, but would not join in the 'jollification' of that event with the men who rejoiced that the traitors in Illi 10is had failed to do what par excel'ence Douglas mer had done here. He urged peace and harmony, and the burial of this question of AN OADINANCE to punish certain offences therein d fference. His remarks were brief and well timed, as was evidenced by the satisfactory; manner with which they were received. There was some little sparring of a personal character between Hon Lew Wallace and Hon John 1 the defeat of the Democratic party in the Congressional and Legislative elections

After which C L Dunham was loudly called beginning to end He poured oil upon the troubled waters, and by his cloquence and reasoning banished from the ha'l the evidence of discord which was manifested previous to his speech Mr Dunham was conservative and conciliatory and his speech evidently had a happy effect Hon D W Voorhees was called out, after Mr. Dunham had concluded, and made a forcible and eloquent speech. Democracy and Education .- It is a singular and sign-ficant fact that in a number of counties in Southern Illinois the number of male adults who cannot read nor write just about equa's the number of those who voted against the Democratic ticket. For instance in Alexander county, the combined vote against Fondey the Democratic candidate, was 233, while the number of male adults in the county unabled to read was 219. In Pope the Republican candida'e received 18 votes, and the number of perons in that county unabled to read is 22. Pulaski county gave 56 Republican votes, and has only 67 adults unable to read, and gave 226 Republican votes Perry had 474 adults unable to read, and gave 463 Republican votes, leaving but 11 of them to vote the Democratic ticket. From the coincidence it is not difficult to see that those who cannot read or write voted to a man the Republican ticket. The Republicans who call attention to the number of ignorant persons in these counties have been sadly discomfitted when it is rendered certain that they comprice the bulk of their vote. Democracy and popular education go hand in hand to gether. An illiterate, ignorant and badly informed man generally votes for the opposition. -Cin. Enq.
